SWEET BEGINNINGS: Alexa was visiting family in Mississippi when she walked passed Aaron at church. She quickly said "Hi," but all he said back was, "Hello," and kept walking, but it wasn't long until he asked for her number through social media. At the time, Alexa was attending Bible College in Indiana, and Aaron was attending Bible College in Texas. They talked for three weeks before he drove fourteen hours to visit her in Indiana. He arrived with a dozen pink roses and was a complete gentleman all weekend long. She asked him to be her date for the Valentine's banquet, which brought him back to Indy only two weeks later. Long story short, Alexa became his girlfriend that weekend, and almost two years later, they committed to spending the rest of their lives together!

PERFECT PROPOSAL: Alexa's Mom tricked her into thinking they had an appointment to look at a wedding venue in Fort Worth. She was in awe as the director escorted them around the beautiful, stained-glass chapel. Towards the end of the tour, Alexa found herself standing at the altar. Turning around, she was shocked to see Aaron standing there with a dozen roses in hand and two of her closest friends behind him. He said a lot of sweet things that she hardly remembers, then he knelt down and asked her to be his wife.

FAB FLORALS: Aaron and Alexa's florals stunned with a beautiful, garden style. The bride's bouquet featured white garden roses, white ranunculus, garden greenery, viburnum, white majolica spray roses, ivory roses, white lilac and Juliet garden roses in apricot and peach, with a touch of Italian variegated pittosporum, crafted by Lush Couture Floral. As an extra pop of blooms, the altar at the water was adorned with a beautiful flower arch.

THE SETTING: Aaron and Alexa decided to have the ceremony at her grandparents' private residence out on the water. Alexa chose hues of marsala, blush, apricot and gold tones for her elegant fall wedding. It ended up being everything they dreamed it would be.
